

Family Camp 2012: Aug. 13—17

Glen Brook will host its annual Family Camp during the second week of August 2012. Families are invited to stay at the Camp for four nights and participate in all that Glen Brook has to offer in the height of summer: swimming in the pond, hiking the forest trails, harvesting garden vegetables and fruit, and relaxing in the hilltop gazebo or the shade of a sugar maple! The pace of each day is the usual Glen Brook balance of play, work, and leisure time. As always, good food is a major component to the week! Glen Brook's signature Eco-gastronomy program utilizes local ingredients, many harvested from the camp's biodynamic garden. Meals are served family style in the dining room.

Please keep in mind: Glen Brook staff lead certain activities for safety reasons, but supervision of children is the express responsibility of parents or guardians at all times during Family Camp. Numerous dangerous areas and activities exist at the camp, including the barnyard, lakefront, kitchen, and even playing in the meadow. Lifeguards will be on duty at the pond each day.

Family Camp is open to all ages, youth, adults and seniors. Lodging is in our rustic cabins and bunkrooms. All meals are provided from Monday lunch to Friday breakfast (a packed lunch is also provided on Friday morning) and served in the dining hall.

What to bring: pillows, sleeping bags (or linens and blankets); swim suits and towels; and outdoor clothing such as walking or hiking shoes or boots, and layers for cool weather.

Cost: $425 for adults; $225 for children 2 – 14; children under two free. Or $1,300 max per family.
