

"The Monadnock Literary & Arts Festival is an inspiring occasion of the first-order."
 ~Baron Wormser, former poet laureate of the State of Maine

Monadnock Literary & Arts Festival

Celebrating the Stories of Place

THREE DAYS OF THE ARTS: writer discussions and workshops, artist presentations, live music, and local food

September 16-17th, 2011

Art

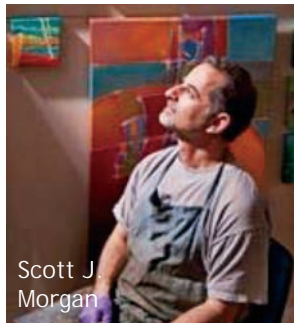

Literature

Music
 Food

Charlotte Fischer

Scott J. Morgan

Wolf Kahn

Alexandra Zissu

FEATURED ARTISTS

MUSIC:

Erica Wheeler
 Lunch at the Dump
 Peter Siegel

ARTISTS:

Wolf Kahn
 Scott J. Morgan
 Charlotte Fischer
 Kate Langridge

WRITERS:

KEYNOTE: Edie Clark,
Yankee Magazine
 Rebecca Rule,
 New Hampshire humorist
 Christian McEwen,
World Enough and Time
 Alexandra Zissu,
The New York Times
 Rick Carey,
Our Own Version of Iowa
 Ken Wright,
 Storyteller and poet

TICKETS & LODGING

FRIDAY: FREE, open to the public (buffet supper: $10)
One-day ticket for all events: $35
Three-day meal ticket: $75
 (includes all meals and snacks)
Saturday meal ticket: $35
 (includes all meals and snacks)
Three-day ticket, all inclusive: (lodging, meals, all events): . $130
Lodging: (limited availability):$35 per night in bunk room
$45 per night in private room
Camping:$15 per night
Student and teacher discount: 20%

Glen Brook's 250-acre campus, set on a Colonial-era farm in view of Mount Monadnock in southern New Hampshire, is the ideal setting for a three-day celebration on the significance of place. The campus includes an active biodynamic farm, hundreds of acres of pristine forests with a dozen trails, a swimming pond, and some 30 acres of open hayfields, offering views of the mountain that are among the most striking in the region.

For more information and a complete schedule, visit www.glenbrook.org or contact Twain Braden, Glen Brook Director:
twain@glenbrook.org or 603-876-3342.

The Monadnock Literary & Arts Festival is produced by Camp Glen Brook in association with the following organizations:

Graduate and continuing education credit available