

"The Monadnock Literary & Arts Festival is an inspiring occasion of the first-order."

-Baron Wormser, former poet laureate of the State of Maine

Monadnock Literary & Arts Festival

Celebrating the Stories of Place

THREE DAYS OF THE ARTS: writer discussions and workshops, artist presentations, live music, and local food

September 17-19th, 2010

Music Food

Alexandra Zissu

Literature Art

FEATURED ARTISTS

MUSIC: Lunatic Fringe Fox That Sound Dan Strauss Erica Wheeler Bernie Watson & Louise Curran Lisa McCormick	ARTISTS: Janet Gordon Frankie Brackley Tolman Roderick MacIver Clare Walker Leslie Retrospective: Onni Saari
WRITERS: Tom Wessels, The Myth of Progress Verlyn Klinkenborg, The Rural Life Alexandra Zissu, The Conscious Kitchen Ved Mehta, The Red Letters Mike Steinberg, Stalking the Ghost Bird James Rousmaniere, Editor, The Keene Sentinel Chris Leahy, A Bird Watcher's Guide	WRITERS: Howard Mansfield, Turn and Jump Judson Hale, Inside New England Edie Clark, The View From Mary's Farm Clare Walker Leslie, Nature Journal Margaret Hathaway, Year of the Goat Walter Butts, Poet Laureate, State of N.H.

Claire Walker Leslie

Film

Verlyn Klinkenborg

Mike Steinberg

Frankie Brackley Tolman

FRIDAY: . . . . .FREE, open to the public (buffet supper: $10)
Three-day ticket for all events: . . . . . $35
One-day ticket for all events: . . . . . $20
Three-day meal ticket: . . . . . $75
 (includes all meals and snacks)
One-day meal ticket: . . . . . $35
 (includes all meals and snacks)
Three-day ticket, all inclusive:
 (lodging, meals, all events): . . . . . $225
Lodging: (limited availability):
 . . . . . $35 per night in bunk room
 . . . . . $45 per night in private room
Camping: . . . . . $15 per night
Student and teacher discount: 20%

Glen Brook's 250-acre campus, set on a Colonial-era farm in view of Mount Monadnock in southern New Hampshire, is the ideal setting for a three-day celebration on the significance of place. The campus includes an active biodynamic farm, hundreds of acres of pristine forests with a dozen trails, a swimming pond, and some 30 acres of open hayfields, offering views of the mountain that are among the most striking in the region.

For more information and a complete schedule, visit www.glenbrook.org or contact Twain Braden, Glen Brook Director: twain@glenbrook.org or 603-876-3342.

The Monadnock Literary & Arts Festival is produced by Camp Glen Brook in association with the following organizations:

Graduate and continuing education credit available