Position for which I am applying _____

The person listed above is applying for a staff position this summer at Camp Glen Brook. The applicant will work hard six days a week doing such things as teaching classes, caring for a group of campers, and generally helping around camp. Counselors and instructors must be comfortable around children, confident and strong, and be good role models. Staff will be living within a close community of about 20 peers with whom they will need to cooperate and compromise.

Please answer the following questions as candidly as possible. Your answers are confidential if the applicant signed the waiver above. Please return the completed form in the self addressed envelope provided. We are very grateful for your assistance!

- How do you know the applicant? For how long have you been acquainted?

- How do you feel about the applicant's ability to work as a member of a team?

- Is this person a self-starter with an ability to see the big picture and a willingness to go the extra mile when given a job or presented with a situation? Please give an example.

- How well do you think this applicant would work with children? Please provide any examples you may have knowledge of.

- Would you have any hesitation about leaving your child (or other young relative) alone with this person in a child-sitting situation due to a lack of patience, disorganization, etc.? If so, why?

- Do you have advice about how to supervise this person? How does he/she respond to constructive criticism?
- Are there any challenges you feel may arise for this person in such an intensive environment?
