

Falcon Outdoor Leadership Equipment List

You will have to purchase items that you do not arrive at camp with—this takes time away from trips and fun activities. THE REQUIRED LIST IS MANDATORY! Do not wait until the week before camp to shop for gear as stores may not have the proper size for your child and they may need to special order something.

Gear will be checked upon arrival.

Required:

- 8 tee shirts (at least 4 synthetic)
- 1 set (top and bottom) long underwear--wool or synthetic
- 2 synthetic or wool long sleeve shirts
- 2 - 3 long pants. No Cotton (zip off types are nice in changing weather conditions)
- 7 pair socks – quick drying type
- At least four pairs of 100% wool/synthetic hiking socks – very important!
- 3 pair shorts
- 6 pair undergarments

Rain gear –jacket and pants, either Gore-Tex, rubber, vinyl or coated nylon, not breathable nylon.

2 Swimsuits/ shorts & athletic top

Sturdy hiking boots (bulky leather boots are not necessary but must have ankle support) all boots must be broken in prior to camp)

Comfortable sneakers.

Water shoes (see next page)

Warm hat & gloves

Hat with visor

At least two sweaters, 1 polar fleece or wool, not cotton (quick drying)

1 pair synthetic or wool long underwear/spandex

Towel

Day pack (can be a school book bag)

Backpack (see next page)

Sleeping bag (not cotton) with stuff sack. A mummy type backpacking bag is ideal.

Sleeping pad

Water containers: One Camelback type system and two bottles to equal FOUR LITERS/101oz (make sure bottles and hydration system fit the pack you are bringing!! Avoid Osprey and Platypus bladders, as they have a tendency to break and leak)

Journal for writing and drawing in, at least 100 sheets. Pens, Pencils

Personal hygiene kit (including personal medications)

Headlamp and extra batteries

Sunscreen & bug repellent

Recommended

Camera (disposable are good)

Reading materials for down time

Small musical instrument

Lightweight binoculars

A few CDs to share on bus rides

Small, portable non-electronic travel games

Pillow (could be appropriately sized for backpacking, too)

Light sheets for sleeping at base camp

Nicer outfit for Banquet

Envelopes, stamps

Sunglasses

Things to leave at home:

Personal Video Games

ipods

Cell Phones (may be checked in the office)

Money

Important Packing Information!!

Clothing: Bring comfortable clothes that you don't mind getting ruined. Some activities may result in permanently stained clothing! Remember that New Hampshire can get chilly and hot. Light weight, quick drying clothing is best for all activities. Some of the newer, "high tech" fibers are much more comfortable given the range of activities we will be participating in. There is storage space for personal gear in the base camp cabins. Participants will have access to laundry weekly. Pack primarily synthetic or wool clothing—it has rained the entire time on certain trips.

Gear: Equipment such as a backpack, sleeping bags and ground pads are great investments for all types of travel. We strongly recommend purchasing sturdy equipment that will last you for many years and trips to come.

Backpack: 3,500-4,000 cubic inches internal frame type suggested. Please make sure that you are fitted properly for the pack by having someone at the outdoor shop assist you or by getting clear fitting instructions from the online store. This is especially important if you are of small stature.

Sleeping pad: (for comfort and insulating warmth during camping trips) Ridge Rest or Thermarest. Not a huge air mattress).

Water shoes: Aqua socks or sandals that can be secured and stay on the foot while swimming (not flip flops)

You can get fabulous deals on gear from Sierra Trading Post, or Campmor mail order catalogs for overstocked items. They can be found on the web at: www.campmor.com www.sierratradingpost.com Outfitting companies such as L.L. Bean, REI, or EMS also have great equipment and are very knowledgeable about what they sell.

Note: We have discontinued our incidental deposit/office "mini store". We will provide campers with any necessity they lose at no charge but will no longer have extras on sale, so please pack very carefully. You are welcome to send more stamps, disposable cameras or other extras in packages.

Valuables that must be brought to camp, such as passports, plane tickets and travel money are to be checked with the director for safe keeping until departure. Because of the rugged nature of our program, please leave valuable clothing and jewelry and other such items at home. Pocket money can remain with participants. We try our best to keep track of everyone's personal items, but cannot be responsible for losses or damages.

As one of our goals at camp is to live simply and transcend some of the everyday distractions and intrusions of contemporary life, we ask that some items that may be part of camper's life at home or school not be brought to camp. These include ipods, cell phones, other electronic devices, as well as magazines, books, posters or clothing depicting drugs or alcohol, violent or sexual themes as well as "Babe" or "Hunk" magazines.

While we are very conscious and respect personal privacy, for health and safety reasons, we reserve the right for the director, or designated staff to inspect all camper's belongings including any packages sent to camp. Campers must unpack all of their belongings at arrival and open any packages in the presence of a staff member.

\*If cost of equipment is a concern, especially for backpacks, we do have a limited supply of backpacks which campers may borrow. Contact us for information.*

Happy Packing!!